District Public Records Disclosure Information

It is the policy of the NCUAQMD that all records not otherwise exempted from disclosure by statutory or case law shall be open for public inspection with the least possible delay and expense to the requesting party. The NCUAQMD may require up to ten (10) days to determine if are in possession of records responsive to your request (7922.535(a)). Additional time may be needed to make these records available. The NCUAQMD charges document fees per Rule 403, where the best estimates of actual costs for copying public records is $2.00 for the first page and $0.25 cents for each page thereafter. The requesting party will be given an estimate for record reproduction prior to copying and will be required to pay for records before receiving them. There is no charge for records that may be provided digitally.
